ACCT NUMBER:

STUDENT LOAN INTEREST STATEMENT

You made student loan interest payments to us totaling during .

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

You may be able to deduct some or all of this interest on your federal income tax return.

Since the amount you paid toward interest does not exceed IRS reporting thresholds, we provide this notice in lieu of a 1098-E. This notice should be considered acceptable for use by your tax preparer.

If your above total equals $0.00, you did not make any payments to us toward interest on these loans in . This means that you either did not make any eligible payments or the payments you made reduced your principal balance rather than interest.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

We service your loans on behalf of the U.S. Department of Education. The Federal Identification Number (or EIN) for the U.S. Department of Education is: 52-1198289

Consult a tax advisor or the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 or irs.gov if you have questions about whether these payments are deductible on your tax return. Contact us at the number above or visit MyFedLoan.org if you have questions about your payments.
